

antagonize

(verb) to cause someone to become hostile or angry; to irritate or upset someone

Application

Most businesses do not take political stands, so they do not antagonize any of their customers.

Synonyms

aggravate, anger, counteract, embitter, empoison, insult, irritate, offend, provoke, vex

Variations

antagonist, antagonism, antagonization (n), antagonistic, antagonizable (adj), antagonistically (adv)

Antonyms

agree, appease, calm, help, mollify, pacify, please, sooth

antagonize

(verb) to cause someone to become hostile or angry; to irritate or upset someone

Antagonize the witch, they said. It'll be fun, they said.

