Note to Parents and Students

It is highly recommended that the sequence of classes presented in this flow chart is followed no matter the grade level of your student. It is important that the prerequisites are taken BEFORE the more advanced courses regardless of what classes have been taken in middle school.

If you feel your student is exceptionally skilled, you or the student may contact one of the art instructors to schedule a portfolio review to help with class placement.